FEDERAL TAX WITHHOLDING ELECTION

IRS regulations require the custodian or trustee of your IRA to withhold federal income taxes from the conversion distribution at the rate of 10% unless you elect not to have withholding apply. Withholding will apply to the entire amount of the conversion distribution, including the amount of any nondeductible contributions that may have been made to the IRA. You may not convert any portion of required minimum distributions (RMDs).

If you elect to have federal income taxes withheld, you may still invest the entire amount of the conversion distribution into your Matthews Asia Funds Roth IRA by using other assets to replace amounts withheld as a prepayment of federal income taxes. Remember, if you use your IRA assets to pay taxes on the conversion distribution amount (either by liquidating additional shares or by not replacing amounts withheld for federal income tax), the IRA assets used to pay those taxes may be considered a premature distribution (if you are under the age of 59½) since they are not being converted into the Roth IRA or rolled over into another IRA and you could also be subject to a 10% early withdrawal penalty.

- Do not withhold federal income tax from this conversion distribution. This option is only available for accounts registered with an address in the United States.
- Withhold 10% federal income tax from this conversion distribution.
- Withhold _____ % federal income tax from this conversion distribution.
(must be more than 10%)
